

Hereford & Worcester Constructing Excellence Club Feedback & Complaints

(1) Overview

The views of our members and visitors to our web site are important to us. Whilst we believe that we take good care in ensuring the information contained within this web site is correct and we try to maintain the quality of our service things sometimes slip past and lead to complaints. We also restrict the use of the site and areas such as the forum through our Conditions of Use but occasionally users and contributors may breach those conditions beyond our immediate control so we appreciate you giving us feedback if you spot something that should not be being published on our web site.

If you think there is something wrong on this web site please tell us about it. Feedback and complaints will help us improve and allow us to put mistakes right.
